Hill Ward Henderson received many rankings and citations for its attorneys and practice groups in the recently published Chambers USA by the internationally acclaimed research group Chambers & Partners, based in London. Three practice areas of the firm were highlighted and ranked in the publication for excellence in service – Corporate M&A and Private Equity; General Commercial Litigation and Real Estate.

In addition, individual attorneys at the firm were cited by Chambers USA with the following comments: Thomas N. Henderson, III - "Founding shareholder Tom Henderson is a first-class lawyer who does a stellar job. His practice involves the acquisition and disposition of commercial real estate." Alton C. Ward - "A first-class employee benefits lawyer with enviable knowledge of retirement planning. He leads a team of seven full-time ERISA lawyers and represents public companies, healthcare providers, professional employer organizations and small businesses in compliance matters and audits." David S. Felman - "Highly competent player David Felman acted for Advanced Financial on the acquisition of a Baltimore-based rival." Mark A. Danzi - "He is well regarded for his M&A and private equity expertise. He led the American land Lease deal." Benjamin H. Hill, III - "Interviewees enthusiastically endorse founding partner Ben Hill, agreeing that he is as good an attorney as you will find in the whole of Florida!" Dennis P. Waggoner - "He leads the department and has a broad commercial litigation practice. A bright, hard-working lawyer, he has particular expertise in professional malpractice defense and professional liability disputes."
