Hill Ward Henderson is pleased to announce the expansion of its Corporate & Transactional group with the addition of Hailey Schlotthauer.

Schlotthauer joins the firm as an associate, focusing her practice on mergers and acquisitions, securities, and corporate governance matters. She represents clients in a wide range of M&A transactions involving private equity firms, privately held companies, and public companies, including the sale of founder-owned businesses, platform and add-on acquisitions for private equity firms, and strategic acquisitions for public companies. In addition to her transactional practice, Schlotthauer advises clients on public company reporting requirements and the proxy process under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

She earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from Stetson University College of Law and holds a B.S. in Entrepreneurship and Innovation from Butler University. During law school, she also served as a judicial intern for The Honorable Mary Scriven of the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida.

Hill Ward Henderson's Corporate & Transactional Group now includes more than 25 professionals dedicated full-time to the firm's corporate practice. The team regularly collaborates with attorneys across complementary disciplines—including employment, executive compensation and benefits, intellectual property, litigation, and real
