Hill Ward Henderson is a proud sponsor of the 2015 Gasparilla Music Festival (GMF) held in downtown Tampa's beautiful Curtis Hixon Waterfront Park & Kiley Gardens on March 7 and 8. This affordable outdoor music festival consists of more than 40 musical acts on three stages featuring local and regional musicians combined with established national and international headliners. In just its third year (2014), the festival had over 16,000 individuals in attendance. The festival exists to nurture and promote the cultural life of the greater Tampa Bay Area by presenting a range of inspiring musicians and performers across all genres, leading to greater music awareness, education and urban renewal.

Joshua C. Webb, an Attorney with the firm, is a supporter of GMF and its efforts to create a sustainable signature music event in Tampa Bay that promotes arts education and benefits local organizations and businesses.
