Hill Ward Henderson is pleased to announce its sponsorship of Art on the House, to be held at the Tampa Museum of Art. Admission to the Museum will now be "on the house" for visitors every Friday, from 4 to 8 p.m., courtesy of Hill Ward Henderson.

"It is our hope that this new program provides an opportunity to introduce our City's beautiful museum to all individuals," explained R. James "Jim" Robbins, Managing Shareholder. "Our firm takes pride in supporting the local arts community and the Museum is a real bonus to our downtown. We hope many people take advantage of starting their weekend by stopping by with friends after work on Fridays to explore this great venue and its excellent exhibits."

The Tampa Museum of Art current exhibits include Romare Bearden: Southern Recollections, Don ZanFagna: Cyborgs, John Cage 33 1/3 - Performed by Audience: A Celebration of the Centenary of the Composer's Birth, and William Pachner: Works from the 1960s.
