Hill Ward Henderson is proud to serve as a silver sponsor of the Florida Certified Public Accountant Association's (FICPA) 2017 Business and Accounting Show. The three-day conference, being held in Ft. Lauderdale on September 27-29 at the Broward County Convention Center, will be attended by CPAs from around the state of Florida. Among the many presentations and learning opportunities, Hill Ward Henderson Shareholder, Bret T. Hamlin, will be featured as a speaker. Mr. Hamlin's presentation, to be given on Friday, September 29, addresses "The Trump Effect: Legislative and Regulatory Changes Affecting Employee Benefit Plans."

Mr. Hamlin is a Shareholder in the firm's Executive Compensation & Employee Benefits Group. He practices primarily in the areas of employee benefits, deferred compensation and trusts. Mr. Hamlin represents large, medium and small employers with respect to many employee benefit matters, including both single employer and multiple employer qualified retirement plans, deferred compensation and welfare benefit plan matters. A significant portion of his practice involves plan compliance, ERISA fiduciary best practices and plan corrections under IRS and Department of Labor compliance resolution programs. He also represents clients with respect to IRS plan examinations and Department of Labor plan investigations.

Mr. Hamlin is an active member of the Employee Benefits Committee of the Tax Section of Taxation of the American Bar Association, the Tampa Bay Pension Council, the Florida West Coast Employee Benefits Council, and the National Association of Professional Employer Organizations (NAPEO). He is also a past President of the Florida West
