Hill Ward Henderson is pleased to announce its support of Big Brothers Big Sisters' 32nd Annual Bowl for Kids' Sake. Funds raised through this program enable Big Brothers Big Sisters to continue its mission to help children reach their potential through professionally supported, one-to-one relationships with measureable impact.

"I enjoy being a part of Big Brothers Big Sisters, providing children facing adversity with strong, enduring relationships," said Travis Santos, an Associate at the firm and board member of Big Brother Big Sisters. "Bowl for Kids' Sake is one of my favorite events, gathering the community together to raise money for a worthwhile cause and enjoying bowling – no expertise required."
