Hill Ward Henderson is pleased to announce its sponsorship of the Tampa Bay Businesses for Culture & the Arts (TBBCA) 19th Annual Impact Awards & Save the Arts Benefit. This awards program is the longest running local program that recognizes the local businesses, professionals and nonprofit organizations for their support of area arts and culture. The event attracts over 200 business professionals, artists and community leaders each year and is hosted by Lissette Campos, an Emmy Award-winning journalist and Director of Community Affairs for WFTS-TV/ABC Action News. Proceeds from the event will be donated to the TBBCA's Save the Arts campaign which provides financial support for Chalk Walk, Cultural Encounters and The Charlie Houchell Art Stars Scholarship Program, named after the late Charlie Houchell, former TBBCA president and founder of the scholarship program.
