LAUREN RUBENSTEIN APPOINTED TO SERVE ON THE FLORIDA BAR'S VOLUNTARY BAR LIAISON COMMITTEE

Firm News

7.10.25

Lauren Rubenstein, a shareholder at Hill Ward Henderson, has been appointed to serve on the Florida Bar's Voluntary Bar Liaison Committee effective July 1, 2025, for a one-year term.

The Voluntary Bar Liaison Committee assists bar sections and committees, and voluntary bar associations; works to improve communication between The Florida Bar and voluntary bar associations; coordinates programs of The Florida Bar involving voluntary bar associations; advises the Communications Division about public relations needs of voluntary bars; and provides a resource and information bank of activities and issues for voluntary bar associations.

Rubenstein is a shareholder in the firm's Real Estate & Land Use group. Her practice primarily focuses on a wide range of land use matters, including zoning, annexations, development approvals, governmental relations and permitting. In addition to her land use practice, she has extensive experience relating to code enforcement, public records and Florida's Sunshine Law. She also works alongside the firm's Trusts and Estates group to provide clients with estate planning, probate and trust administration services.
