Hill Ward Henderson is pleased to announce that shareholder Scott McLaren has been elected to membership in the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), one of the nation's most prestigious organizations for trial lawyers.

American Board of Trial Advocates is a national association of experienced trial attorneys dedicated to preserving the right to jury trials and promoting the highest standards of professionalism, civility, and integrity in the legal profession. Membership is by invitation only and is limited to lawyers who have demonstrated exceptional skill and extensive experience as trial advocates.

McLaren's election reflects his longstanding reputation as a skilled and principled trial lawyer, as well as his commitment to excellence in advocacy and ethical practice. He represents clients in litigation matters involving business, real estate, and construction development issues and frequently tries cases in state and federal courts.
