

PEOPLE

Wendi Raymond

WENDI RAYMOND JOINS HILL WARD HENDERSON AS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Firm News

4.14.26

Hill Ward Henderson is pleased to welcome Wendi Raymond as the firm's Chief Financial Officer.

In this role, Raymond will oversee the firm's Finance/Accounting and Information Technology departments. She will be involved with various of the firm's leadership committees and will lead and participate in initiatives that help promote the firm's efficient, effective and profitable operation.

"Wendi brings a deep understanding of law firm financial operations and a proven track record of supporting strategic growth," said Bob Fulton, Managing Partner of Hill Ward Henderson. "Her experience and leadership will be instrumental as we continue to build on our strong foundation and position the firm for the future."

Prior to joining Hill Ward Henderson, Raymond spent more than 20 years with a large national firm, six of those years as the firm's Chief Financial Officer. While there, she played an integral role in supporting the firm's growth from a regional platform to a nationally recognized Am Law 100 law firm.

Raymond earned a Master of Accountancy from the University of North Florida and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Texas Christian University. She is also licensed as a Certified Public Accountant in Florida.