

Corporate Governance

Laner Muchin guides firms through all areas of corporate governance and compliance, including drafting operating agreements, bylaws and other such governing documents. We also assist with board creation, ethics training, meetings, minutes and ensuring compliance with communications among board members.