

Form I-9 and E-Verify Compliance / U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Investigations

Our attorneys provide clients with support and strategic counseling from an immigration law perspective in connection with Form I-9 and E-Verify compliance, and investigations initiated by the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), a division of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. We provide assistance to corporations in ensuring their Form I-9 and E-Verify processes meet federal regulations and we provide representation to clients in ICE investigations.

Experience

Below is a representative example of the types of services we provide our clients in connection with Form I-9 and E-Verify counseling and representation in ICE audits:

- ✓ Advising clients on Form I-9 self-audits, electronic I-9 systems, I-9 processes, policies and training. We routinely review our clients' Form I-9 files and processes for compliance, to ensure that clients are following good business practices and have an effective re-verification process in place.
- ✓ Providing counseling to clients regarding E-Verify enrollment and the E-Verify process for new hires, for both federal contractors and private employers
- ✓ Representing clients with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security/U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement and other government agency worksite enforcement activities (i.e., I-9 audits, administrative subpoenas and other investigations and proceedings)
- ✓ Advising clients on Social Security Number mismatch letters including notifications from state agencies, the Social Security Administration, the Internal Revenue Service and in relation to the Affordable Care Act (ACA)
