

Non-Compete, Executive Employment and Other Agreements

Our attorneys advise clients regarding whether to have employment agreements, with whom they should have such agreements, and the terms of such agreements. The types of agreements we draft and advise upon include executive employment agreements, arbitration agreements, mediation agreements, severance agreements, non-compete agreements, confidentiality agreements, cash advance agreements and many others.

Experience

Below is a representative sample of the types of services we provide our clients in connection with Non-Compete, Executive Employment and Other Agreements:

- ✓ Determining the extent of restrictive covenants necessary to protect our clients from unlawful competition and solicitation.
- ✓ Advising clients as to whether they may properly engage potential employees subject to non-compete agreements.
- ✓ Enforcing restrictive covenants through injunctions and other legal actions.
- ✓ Defending against the enforcement of overly broad or otherwise arguably unenforceable restrictive covenants.
- ✓ Advising clients regarding the terms and conditions appropriate in C-Level and other executive employment agreements.
- ✓ Advising on executive compensation matters.
- ✓ Drafting arbitration and mediation agreements.

Non-Compete, Executive Employment and Other Agreements

- ✓ Negotiating and drafting executive employment agreements, including negotiating restrictive covenant terms and working with our clients to develop compensation strategies, including stock options, rollover equity and other non-traditional compensation, that align with our clients' business goals.
- ✓ Advising and drafting severance agreements that comply with various state and federal laws, including the Older Workers' Benefit Protection Act

Our attorneys have successfully provided these services to clients across a multitude of industries and across the nation.
