

Partnership/Shareholder Disputes

Laner Muchin attorneys handle partnership and shareholder disputes with precision. Our services include representing entities, including individuals, with ownership in a company who have disagreements between the owners that can have significant financial and operational consequences.

We provide guidance on issues such as business decisions, compensation and responsibilities, breach of fiduciary duties, and business valuation. Our team is committed to protecting each client's interests, negotiating equitable solutions, and achieving favorable outcomes through thorough legal representation and strategic dispute resolution.