

The Impact of Emojis on Employment Litigation

Darin Williams

Defense Research Institute in Raising the Bar, the newsletter of DRI's Young Lawyers Committee

10.08.2018

This article comments on the increasing appearance of emojis and emoticons in federal litigation and analyzes the ways in which emojis have been used as evidence by both plaintiffs and defendants.

Based on this analysis, the article concludes by offering advice to employers on how to mitigate the impact of emojis in the workplace.

Attorneys

Darin M. Williams

Practice Areas

Counseling and Transactional

Employee Benefits and
Executive Compensation

Labor Management
Relations