

Laner Muchin Attorney Peter Gillespie Authors Chapter on, “What Employers Need to Know about the Internet of Things”

03.22.2019

Chicago, IL – Laner Muchin attorney Peter Gillespie authors a chapter on “What Employers Need to Know about the Internet of Things,” in the forthcoming book, Internet of Things: Legal Issues, Policies and Practical Strategies, published by the American Bar Association (ABA) Section of Science and Technology.

The chapter discusses how employers face unique issues and have a significant role to play as the internet of things expands. The legal requirements include:

- IoT-Related Privacy Risks for Employers
- State Data Protection Statutes
- National Labors Relations Act
- Wage and Hour Laws
- Litigation: Data Retention Requirements

Gillespie is an Editorial Board member of the Science and Technology Law publication, The SciTech Lawyer. He has previously served as the Chairs of the E-Privacy Committee and the Social Media Committee.

Gillespie represents and counsels management on a wide array of employment law-related issues, including workplace safety and health, wage and hour laws, prevailing wage issues, covenants not to compete,
