

Laner Muchin Achieves 100% Participation in the 13th Annual Chicago Bar Foundation Investing in Justice Campaign

05.29.2019

Chicago, IL – Laner Muchin is honored to have again participated in The Chicago Bar Foundation Investing in Justice Campaign. This year's 13th annual Campaign set a new record while raising awareness and much-needed funding for pro bono and legal aid services in the Chicago area. The firm was one of 150 participating law firms, corporation legal departments and other law-related organizations.

Altogether, more than 5,200 individual attorney and legal professional contributed more than $1.56 million through the Campaign which is a record in the Campaign's 13-year history.

This year's Campaign will make possible more than $2.3 million in grants and support for the work of more than 30 pro bono and legal aid organizations and related initiatives. Thanks to a number of generous matching contributions from participating firms and companies, including Laner Muchin, 100% of individual contributions go directly to this support and leverage more than $700,000 in additional funding from CBF foundation and government partners.

In addition, Laner Muchin was one of twenty law firms with 100% participation and recognition in the top 5 categories for firms with 41-100 attorneys.
