

Laner Muchin Ltd. Continues to Grow with Addition of Christina Jaremus and Alexandra McNicholas

07.08.2019

Chicago, IL – Laner Muchin is pleased to announce the addition of Christina Jaremus and Alexandra McNicholas effective June 25, 2019.

“We are thrilled to add attorneys of their caliber to the firm, Jim Convery, Managing Partner of the firm said. “Christina’s and Alexandra’s addition to our team further enhances our capabilities in this area of practice, which is a critical strategic focus for Laner Muchin.”

Jaremus offers experience defending public and private sector employers against claims arising out of various state and federal laws, including but not limited to: Title VII, Section 1983, ADA, the ADEA, Title IX, the Illinois Human Rights Act, the Public Employee Safety Employee Benefits Act, and the Illinois Wage Payment and Collection Act.

Prior to joining Laner Muchin, McNicholas practiced at an Am Law100 firm where she focused on complex commercial litigation matters, routinely litigating and assisting clients in the resolution of disputes in federal and state courts across the country.
