

Laner Muchin Attorney William H. Nichols Presented on “Best Fiduciary Practices for 401k/Defined Contribution Plans,” at the Special Advisor Forum Hosted by TPA Benchmark

10.24.2019

Chicago, IL – Laner Muchin attorney William H. Nichols presented on “Best Fiduciary Practices for 401k/Defined Contribution Plans,” at the Special Advisor Forum hosted by TPA Benchmark on Thursday, October 24, 2019 in Oak Brook, Illinois.

Nichols discussed how to identify fiduciaries and how to protect both plan-sponsoring employers and insider-fiduciaries. He also recommended best practices for plan fiduciaries in managing plan operations in areas such as selecting vendors and monitoring vendors, effective reporting and disclosure, managing plan investments and recordkeeping oversight.

In 40 years of practice, Nichols has developed extensive experience in all areas of Employee Benefits law, including retirement plans of all types, health and welfare benefits, and executive compensation. Among many honors, he has been consistently named an Illinois Leading Lawyer by Leading Lawyers. He is a member of the Chicago and American Bar Associations and is a member and speaker for Plan Sponsor Council of America.
