Chicago, IL – Laner Muchin Partner Cliff Perry received the 2018 Animal Welfare Leadership award at the 12th annual Animal Magnetism event hosted by PAWS Chicago on March 16, 2018 at Morgan Manufacturing.

The award is given to those who dedicate themselves professionally and personally to the PAWS mission, and is a recognition of the time and effort the recipients spend assisting the organization.

Animal Magnetism welcomes more than 600 of Chicago's urban professionals, animal lovers, and canine companions! This pet-friendly celebration is critical in raising funds that provide the operational support PAWS Chicago needs to continue saving thousands of homeless pets around the world each year.

Perry is an experienced, go-to litigator and represents employers in state and federal courts and before administrative agencies throughout the United States. He represents employers in all areas of employment law in high stakes class actions, multiple plaintiff and single plaintiff cases, and in EEOC pattern and practice class claims.
