

Laner Muchin Attorney Violet M. Clark Presented on the Americans with Disabilities Act at the National Funeral Directors & Morticians Association's Annual Meeting

04.24.2018

Chicago, IL – Laner Muchin attorney Violet M. Clark presented on the Americans with Disabilities Act at the National Funeral Directors and Morticians Association's (NFD&MA) Annual meeting on April 24, 2018 in Atlantic City.

Clark's presentation provided an overview of the Americans with Disabilities Act as it relates to businesses and employers and as public accommodations. The presentation also addressed the emerging issue that businesses face of ensuring that their websites allow individuals with disabilities to enjoy the full and equal enjoyment of their services.

Clark collaborates with CEOs and their management teams to design strategies to ensure their businesses achieve their goals regarding all aspects of human resources management and avoid labor and employment liability. She has more than three decades of experience representing for profit and non-profit companies of all sizes and industries and working with and for government and regulatory bodies from local to federal.

About NFD&MA

NFD&MA is a membership association of professional funeral directors and morticians and embalmers, whose members and members-at-large are also members of state associations of funeral directors, morticians and

Attorneys

Violet M. Clark

Practice Areas

Counseling and Transactional

Labor Management
Relations

Public Sector

Laner Muchin Attorney Violet M. Clark Presented on the Americans with Disabilities Act at the National Funeral Directors & Morticians Association's Annual Meeting

embalmers dedicated to promoting the common professional and business interests of its members. The objectives of this Association are:

- (a) to foster research, conduct workshops and seminars, investigate funeral practices, develop and maintain standards of conduct designed to improve the business condition of its members and to maintain high standards of service for the benefit of the public;
- (b) to provide a continuing program of service and to develop and disseminate information beneficial to members and the public at large;
- (c) to represent the common professional and business interests of its members before various Federal, state and local legislative, administrative and judicial bodies, subject to the limitations of Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Code.

Firm Profile

Laner Muchin Ltd. concentrates in the representation of employers in labor relations, employment litigation, employee benefits and business immigration matters. The firm provides legal services to clients from coast to coast. For more information on our firm and our services, visit www.lanermuchin.com.