

Jeremy Edelson to Serve as Panelist at the Employment Rights and Responsibilities Committee Midwinter Meeting

03.04.2025

On March 17, Laner Muchin Partner Jeremy Edelson will participate as a panelist at the American Bar Association's Employment Rights and Responsibilities Committee Midwinter Meeting in a session titled "Political Speech in the Workplace: What Are the Boundaries?" in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico.

During the session, Jeremy and his fellow panelists will examine the legal and policy considerations of political speech in the workplace, including how employers address productivity and civility concerns while employees retain certain protections to discuss political topics on and off the clock. The discussion will cover key legal frameworks, including Section 7 of the NLRA, as well as the broader implications of regulating political speech at work.

To learn more about the Meeting, click here.

Jeremy regularly assists and defends employers in navigating multiple state and federal labor and employment mandates, including the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act and the Illinois Human Rights Act.

Laner Muchin represents management in employment-related litigation, labor relations, employment law counseling, employee benefits, executive compensation, business immigration matters and corporate transactions

Attorneys

Jeremy L. Edelson

Practice Areas

Employment Litigation

Jeremy Edelson to Serve as Panelist at the Employment Rights and Responsibilities Committee Midwinter Meeting

and commercial litigation. The firm provides legal services to clients from coast to coast.