

Andrew Goldberg Selected as a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation

08.30.2022

The American Bar Foundation (ABF) has selected Managing Partner Andrew Goldberg for their fellowship program in 2022. Andy joins a global honorary society comprising a network of prominent lawyers, judges, law faculty and legal scholars who have shown exceptional leadership and service in their roles.

Fellows of the American Bar Foundation are nominated by peers and selected by the ABF board, and membership is limited to one percent of lawyers licensed to practice in each jurisdiction. ABF Fellows are called upon to share their industry knowledge and experience at local educational programs and social events hosted by the ABF.

The American Bar Foundation was founded in 1952 as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit and independent research institute. It is regarded as a leading institute for the empirical study of law in the United States and pioneers research that addresses key topics related to the intersection of law and society to advance justice.
