April 17, 2020

On April 11, 2020, the City of Los Angeles published Rules and Regulations interpreting the City's Emergency Ordinance ("the Ordinance"), which mandates employers of either (a) 500 or more employees within the City of Los Angeles; or (b) 2,000 or more employees within the United States, to offer supplemental paid sick leave for COVID-19 related reasons.

Here are the top 5 new takeaways for employers interpreting the Ordinance from the Rules and Regulations:
