

---

better late than never: new sexual harassment training regulations adopted

---

MSK Client Alert

September 2007

The California Fair Employment and Housing Commission recently approved final regulations offering long-awaited guidance to employers on their obligations under AB 1825, which amended the Fair Employment and Housing Act ("FEHA") in 2004 to require sexual harassment awareness training for most California supervisors.

practice areas

employment litigation & counseling

labor & employment

labor litigation & counseling