

there's no such thing as a free (missed) lunch

MSK Client Alert

May 2007

California Supreme Court announces that payments for missed meals and breaks are "premium wages," not penalties, increasing extent of potential employer liability.

practice areas

employment litigation & counseling labor & employment

labor litigation & counseling