

---

consular processing update

---

MSK Client Alert

September 2008

In a regulation published on August 20, 2008, the United States State Department has made mandatory the requirement that almost every applicant for a nonimmigrant visa at an embassy or consulate abroad submit a full set of digital biometric scans (fingerprints) as a condition of receiving a nonimmigrant visa.

attorneys

David S. Rugendorf

practice areas

immigration

immigration