

program electronic review management (perm)

MSK Client Alert

June 2006

We would like to bring to your attention a dramatic reform to the department of labor's long established labor certification program. Labor certification is often the first step towards a green card application based on a job offer.

practice areas

immigration

immigration