

c-suite advisory

Today's executives operate in a high-velocity, high-stakes environment where legal risk intersects with business strategy at every turn. MSK's C-Suite Advisory team serves as a strategic partner to executives, offering real-time, operationally-focused practical legal guidance. Whether advising on employment policies, evaluating potential transactions, or analyzing risk, we help clients navigate complexity with clarity, speed, and accuracy.

We act as an extension of your leadership team — available when you need us, whether it's for a real-time question or a forward-looking strategy session. Our team includes attorneys with deep in-house and business experience who understand what matters in the boardroom. We operate as a sounding board across labor and employment, governance, tax, privacy, IP, M&A, and other mission-critical areas.

As your first call, we assess issues quickly, identify key risks, and help you determine when to call upon subject matter experts across our full-service firm. We understand that predictability and efficiency matter. That's why we offer a flexible, flat-fee pricing model based on volume.

Whether our clients are navigating growth, managing consolidation, preparing for a strategic transaction or facing a crisis moment, we provide seasoned counsel at the tip of the spear so the next move is always informed, compliant, and strategic.

How We Help

MSK's C-Suite Advisory team supports executives with strategic, day-to-day, and forward-looking legal guidance across a wide range of business issues. Our clients gain access to senior-level counsel who understand the pace, complexity, and pressure of decision-making at the top, with the ability to integrate seamlessly into existing operations.

Our support includes:

- Risk Assessment: Identifying legal and regulatory exposure, before it escalates into litigation or enforcement, across employment, tax, corporate governance, and more.

practice contact

Mike Marino

attorneys

Nimish Patel

related practices areas

corporate & business transactions

corporate governance

cybersecurity and privacy

employee benefits & executive compensation

intellectual property

labor & employment

litigation

mergers & acquisitions

transactional tax

- Employment & Workforce Guidance: Strategy, policy, and project management across the full spectrum of workplace issues, including advice, agreements, business ethics, case assessment, restructuring, traditional labor, investigations, training, and more.
- Transactional Strategy: Advising on mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures, and restructurings with a focus on deal structure and due diligence.
- Corporate Governance & Board Matters: Helping executives and boards navigate fiduciary duties, internal investigations, and governance best practices.
- Data Privacy & Regulatory Compliance: Advising on evolving privacy laws, industry-specific regulations, and compliance programs.
- Intellectual Property Strategy: Safeguarding brand identity, content, and other key assets to drive business value and reduce risk.
- On-Demand Legal Review: Serving as a strategic sounding board, whether reviewing a high-stakes agreement, evaluating internal policies, or providing timely guidance on key business decisions.