legal expertise

Adam Levin represents employers in all areas of labor and employment law, including serving as lead counsel in numerous employment discrimination, wrongful termination and trade secret/unfair competition cases, labor arbitrations, National Labor Relations Board hearings, and other administrative proceedings. Counsels clients on compliance with FMLA, ADA, Title VII, FEHA, FLSA, ERISA, NLRA and state employment laws. He negotiates and drafts executive employment agreements, and also represents clients in litigation involving right of publicity, invasion of privacy and related claims involving models, celebrities and performing artists.

representative matters

- On behalf of a major motion picture studio, prevailed in an arbitration brought by SAG-AFTRA on behalf of performers challenging the studio's right to reuse film clips of highly compensated "deal players" in a sequel.
- Secured complete summary judgment on behalf of Warner Bros. in a federal court case involving claims of reverse discrimination, retaliation, and harassment by a former television camera operator on "The Big Bang Theory." Affirmed on appeal by Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Watch Oral Arguments Before Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals - October 8, 2025.
- Represented ABC, Touchstone Pictures and "Desperate Housewives" executive producer Marc Cherry against claims of wrongful termination, battery and unlawful retaliation brought by former "Housewives" star Nicollette Sheridan. Mr. Levin obtained dismissal of all claims and all defendants, except for a single claim against Touchstone on which the jury was unable to reach a verdict. Mr. Levin represented the defendants on appeal and in subsequent trial court proceedings, ultimately obtaining dismissal of Sheridan's remaining claims resulting in a total victory for the defendants.

- Successfully represented Warner Bros. Television Production, an independent production company and several individual writers in a high-profile, wrongful termination and harassment suit brought by a former writer's assistant for the hit TV show "Friends." After obtaining summary judgement and an award of $415,000 in attorneys' fees, reversed by the appellate court, argued the case of Lyle v. Warner Brothers Television Production before the California Supreme Court, resulting in a unanimous decision in favor of our clients. Lyle v. Warner Brothers Television Production, 38 Cal. 4th 264 (2006). Watch Oral Arguments Before California State Supreme Court - February 14, 2006.
- Represented Cable News Network against claims made by a former producer who alleged that his termination stemmed from race discrimination. Adam successfully used California's anti-SLAPP statute to persuade an LA Superior Court judge to dismiss the claims and rule that the news organization's editorial decision to terminate the former producer was protected by the First Amendment. The appellate court reversed the Superior Court's finding in a split decision (2-1), but in March 2017, the California Supreme Court granted petition for review. On May 7, 2019, Adam argued before the Supreme Court, which reversed the decision of the Court of Appeal in part and remanded the case for further proceedings on whether Wilson has put forward sufficient evidence of minimal merit to proceed. Watch Oral Arguments Before California State Supreme Court - May 7, 2019.
- Obtained dismissal of a complaint brought over allegedly discriminatory casting decisions on The Bachelor. Adopting Adam's view, the court ruled that the network's choices were protected free expression.
- Successfully defended talent agency Todd Shemarya Artists in a discrimination, harassment, retaliation and wrongful termination action. After trying the case to a Los Angeles Superior Court for almost two weeks, the jury deliberated for a mere 30 minutes before returning a verdict for our client on all causes of action.
- Successfully defended a major record company in a discrimination action by an aspiring recording artist. Obtained dismissal of the action with prejudice, which the Ninth Circuit affirmed on appeal. Flores v. Elektra Records, 124 Fed. Appx. 502, 2005 U.S. App. LEXIS 2346 (9th Cir. 2005).
- Successfully defended a major oil and gas company in a sex discrimination and retaliation action by an employee. Obtained dismissal of the complaint, which the Ninth Circuit affirmed on appeal. Kinney v. Occidental Oil & Gas Corp., 109 Fed. Appx. 135, 136 (9th Cir. 2004).

- Successfully defended Outback Pictures in a sexual harassment and wrongful termination action by a former personal assistant. Obtained summary judgement for our client, which the appellate court affirmed on appeal.
- Chief negotiator on numerous entertainment industry collective bargaining agreements.
- Represented a national clothing retailer in two purported wage and hour class actions in California. Both settled on favorable terms.
- Successfully represented a national clothing retailer in their appeal of the District Court's order directing it to comply with an administrative subpoena from Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) in respect to a sexual harassment claim by a former employee. The Court of Appeals reversed the District Court's decision to enforce the subpoena.
- Defended Move, Inc. against an unlawful employment practices claim alleging employment discrimination based on race brought by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). Successfully obtained summary judgement for our client.
- Defended client in breach of contract action by former employee, and obtained judgment for defendant at trial. Rosen v. Homestore, Inc., Los Angeles Superior Court.
- Handled numerous trade secret/unfair competition cases, including obtaining a temporary restraining order for an employer enjoining a former employee from working for a competitor.
- Represented a publicly traded, online real estate company in a purported wage and hour class action in California.
- Handled threatened class action against major aerospace corporation, including defeating attempt to certify a class, obtaining summary judgment, and obtaining affirmance by the U. S. Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit.
- Acted as in-house counsel for major motion picture studios (1996-1998; 2001-2002).
