

eric german presents current issues in the music business at narm

June 9, 2009

Intellectual Property & Technology partner Eric German will discuss current issues in the music industry at the annual NARM (National Association of Recording Merchandisers) Convention which this year will reflect on the convergence of physical, digital and mobile content delivery options within the music industry.

practice areas

intellectual property