

---

multilateral developments - copyright and the nafta negotiations

---

Fordham Law School | New York, NY

April 6, 2018

4:15–5:15 PM (ET)

Event Sponsor: Fordham Intellectual Property Law Institute and Emily C. & John E. Hansen Intellectual Property Institute's 26th Annual Intellectual Property Law & Policy Conference

practice areas

entertainment & ip litigation

intellectual property

Kevin Rosenbaum will be speaking on the panel, "Multilateral Developments - Copyright and the NAFTA Negotiations," at the Fordham Intellectual Property Law Institute and Emily C. & John E. Hansen Intellectual Property Institute's 26th Annual Intellectual Property Law & Policy Conference on April 6th.

Kevin M. Rosenbaum, Mitchell, Silberberg & Knupp LLP, Washington, D.C.

Copyright and the NAFTA Negotiations

Although other issues have so far dominated press coverage of the NAFTA negotiations, the copyright rules will be a very important part of any renegotiated agreement. How important is updating the copyright provisions in a renegotiated agreement? What are the priorities and challenges for rights holders in the negotiations?

View Information and Register

View Agenda