

developments in idea submission law

National Center for the Preservation of Democracy @ Japanese American National Museum

January 17, 2019

4:45 - 5:45 PM (PT)

Event Sponsor: Media Law Resource Center/Southwestern Law School

Robert Rotstein will be speaking at the Media Law Resource Center/Southwestern Law School's 2019 Entertainment and Media Law Conference on "Developments in Idea Submission Law" on Thursday, January 17, 2019.

"Developments in Idea Submission Law"

What are the current best practices for handling idea submissions? Where do idea theft claims end, and copyright claims begin? When and how does "substantial similarity" rear its ugly head in misappropriation cases? Should any studio ever host a writing or video competition? Our panel of attorneys, deep in the trenches on these topics, will survey the battleground of recent cases and discuss strategy.

MODERATOR: DAVID ARONOFF, FOX ROTHSCHILD, LLP

PANELISTS:

- BOB ROTSTEIN, MITCHELL SILBERBERG & KNUPP LLP
- KELLI SAGER, DAVIS WRIGHT TREMAINE LLP
- PETER AFRASIABI, ONE LLP
- TAMERLIN J. GODLEY, MUNGER TOLLES & OLSON LLP
- TANIA HOFF, NBC UNIVERSAL MEDIA

View Conference Schedule

attorneys

Robert H. Rotstein

practice areas

entertainment & ip litigation

entertainment transactions

intellectual property