

rise of the machines: avoiding the legal pitfalls of app development

Webinar

September 26, 2019

Arina Shulga will serve as a moderator and panelist via the ABA webinar on "Rise of the Machines: Avoiding the Legal Pitfalls of App Development."

App development involves careful planning at every step to avoid loss of money and rights. These presenters will help the audience identify the important factors to consider when representing your client's software.

More Information & Register

practice areas

capital markets & securities

corporate & business transactions

general corporate law