"Fair Use in the Age of Content Consumption" SXSW

March 21, 2020 | 2-3:00 PM (CST)

Netflix, Disney+, Twitter, Instagram, Spotify, YouTube, Quibi, Twitch . . . . With the rapid growth and expansion of digital platforms allowing for content to be at everyone's fingertips, one thing is clear—Content is still King! An ever increasing need for content to fill these new media outlets inevitably means pushing the boundaries on the use of others' works without permission. With legislative changes to the law impractical in order to keep up in the fast-paced world, this panel will discuss how and if fair use can be used to give consumers the content that they crave.
