

annual security growth conference

March 3, 2009

MSK is once again pleased to join Imperial Capital and CapitalSource in presenting the Security Growth Conference, the premier forum for companies in the security industry - from state-of-the-art software and technology developers to cyber security and global security convergence providers - to meet with investors and executives to discuss trends and opportunities.

practice areas

cybersecurity and privacy
homeland security &
regulation
regulatory