

---

practising law institute (pli)'s "technotainment" 2020

---

Live Webcast

October 23, 2020

Yakub Hazzard and Christine Lepera will be speaking on different panels at Practising Law Institute's "Technotainment" 2020 on October 23, 2020.

What You Will Learn

- The Music Industry and COVID-19: Understanding This New World
- Litigation Update – Important Recent Technotainment Cases
- The Insurance Implications of COVID-19 in the Sports and Entertainment Industries
- Legal Issues at the Crossroads: Sports, Entertainment, and Technology
- Recent Changes in Film, Television, and Streaming Businesses, and Related Legal Issues

Who Should Attend

This program is targeted towards in-house counsel, law firm attorneys, and allied professionals who work in or with technology, the Internet, games, news, sports, virtual reality, television, radio, video, film, entertainment, interactive media, or telecommunications; and attorneys who practice in copyright, trademark, licensing, merchandising, advertising or litigation.

Program Level: Overview

Intended Audience: In-house counsel, law firm attorneys, and allied professionals who work in or with technology, the Internet, games, news, sports, virtual reality, television, radio, video, film, entertainment, interactive media, or telecommunications; and attorneys who practice in copyright, trademark, licensing, merchandising, advertising or litigation.

attorneys

Yakub Hazzard

Christine Lepera

practice areas

entertainment & ip litigation

intellectual property

Prerequisites: An interest in the legal issues posed by convergence of technology and entertainment.

Advanced Preparation: None

---

"Litigation Update – Important Recent Techartainment Cases"

10:30 AM EDT

- Explore recent landmark or precedent-setting cases in entertainment and technology
- Look forward at pending litigation and appeals

Speakers:

- Jacqueline C. Charlesworth
  - Christine Lepera
-

"Recent Changes in Film, Television, and Streaming Businesses, and Related Legal Issues"

3:15 PM EDT

- Changes due to COVID-19
- Issues to consider when producing remotely
- New workplace rules

Speakers:

- Sharon Glancz
  - Yakub Hazzard
  - Jakgeem Mays
-

View Full Event Details