Eleanor M. Lackman is speaking on the panel, "Hot Off the Presses! Warhol Foundation v. Goldsmith Decision Debrief," on May 22, 2023, sponsored by the NYC Bar Association's Art Law Committee and Copyright and Literary Property Committee.

Event Details:

Please join our free, virtual roundtable session on Monday, May 22 from 3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. EST, where our panelists will recap and discuss the Supreme Court's recent decision in the Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts v. Goldsmith case.

The roundtable's panel includes:

William E. Evans, an attorney with Goodwin Procter LLP, who co-wrote an amicus brief on behalf of various art foundations supporting the Warhol Foundation;

Judge Simon J. Frankel of the Superior Court of San Francisco County in California, who co-wrote an amicus brief on behalf of various art museums in support of neither party;

Eleanor M. Lackman, an attorney with Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP, who co-wrote an amicus brief in support of neither party on behalf of various organizations who themselves (and whose members) create and disseminate expressive works; and Philippa S. Loengard, an attorney, scholar, and Executive Director of the Kernochan Center for Law, Media, and the Arts, who co-wrote an amicus brief on behalf of herself, in support of Goldsmith.
