

text and technology: how international licensing structures apply to text, and how they may predict options for generative ai

Rancho Mirage, CA

January 28, 2024

Event Sponsor: Copyright Society 2024 Midwinter Meeting

Eleanor M. Lackman is speaking on the panel "Text and Technology: How International Licensing Structures Apply to Text, and How They May Predict Options for Generative AI" at the Copyright Society's 2024 Midwinter Meeting on January 28, 2024.

About the panel...

While we all know that text has long been covered by copyright, you might not know as much about the innovative ways we've used and licensed works like news, fiction, and scientific journals in our ever changing technological world. Learn how we've licensed these types of works here and abroad, the current AI litigation landscape swirling around text, variations between different types of textual works and in comparison to licensing and uses of other creative works, and potential paths forward.

Presenters:

Jay Kerr-Wilson, Partner | Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP

Eleanor M. Lackman, Partner | Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp

Regan A. Smith, Senior Vice President & General Counsel | News Media Alliance

Catherine Zaller Rowland, Vice President, General Counsel | Copyright Clearance Center

attorneys

Eleanor M. Lackman

practice areas

intellectual property

msk.com

los angeles
t 310.312.2000
f 310.312.3100

new york
t 212.509.3900
f 212.509.7239

washington, dc
t 202.355.7900
f 202.355.7899

text and technology: how international licensing structures apply to text, and how they may predict options for generative ai

Click here to view event information and full agenda.