

sustaining and empowering the creative community through copyright

Copyright Alliance

April 23, 2024

Eric Schwartz will speak on the panel "Sustaining and Empowering the Creative Community Through Copyright," hosted by the Copyright Alliance along with their community partners and organizations, on April 23, 2024. During the event, which will be held via Zoom on at 2 p.m. ET / 11 a.m. PT, the panelists will discuss how creators can meet their goals today while helping to ensure that tomorrow's creative community is sustained through job growth, a strong creative economy, and continued growth of the arts, all of which are perpetuated through copyright protections.
