Join the Beverly Hills Bar Association on October 9, 2014, for a panel discussion on business immigration law and its impact on entertainment professionals.

Fuji Whittenburg, along with a panel of legal experts, will discuss and evaluate the best options for securing non-immigrant and immigrant visas for entertainers and artists, individuals with extraordinary ability, and world-renowned athletes. The panel will offer practice pointers for filing cases with the various USCIS Service Centers and share key insights gained from recent case precedent.

1.5 MCLE credits are available. $80 for BHBA members who pay in advance; $45 for Judicial Officers & Law Students who pay in advance; $175 for non-BHBA Members who pay in advance* ($25 more for each at the door); and FREE for members of The Order of Distinguished Attorneys.

Register Online Now or call the BHBA Service Center 1-310-601-2422 to register over the phone.
