Robin Gilden will be speaking on "Significant Cases and Legislative Changes from 2015" at the Continuing Education of the Bar's (CEB) popular Business Law annual review.

Much has changed in the year 2015, including business law practices. Robin will join a panel of business law attorneys to discuss significant cases and legislative changes from the past year. Using a highly sought-after compilation of selected case summaries from CEB's Business Law Reporter, she will help to identify real-world applications and trends that will help fellow business law attorneys keep on top of their practice.
