

five things europeans need to know about us trademark law

London, England

January 27, 2016

Evan Kent will be speaking at the King & Wood Mallesons Annual IP Seminar on a panel titled "Five Things Europeans Need to Know About US Trademark Law." This panel will take place on January 27, 2016 and will cover the important differences between UK and European trademark application practice and that of the USA.

practice areas

entertainment & ip litigation

intellectual property

trademarks & brands