

advancing women in the profession: a conversation among former women section chairs

New York Hamilton Midtown

January 27, 2016
9:35 AM EST

Lauren Wachtler will be speaking on the panel titled "Advancing Women in the Profession: A Conversation Among Former Women Section Chairs" at the Commercial and Federal Litigation Section Annual Meeting, held by the New York State Bar Association.

Former Women Chairs of the Commercial & Federal Litigation Section will discuss how men and women can work together to achieve equal opportunities and visibility for women among their peers and in the courtroom and in the boardroom. The discussion will provide practical advice, unique insight, and diverse perspectives on the role of men and women in advancing women in the profession.

This panel has been approved for 1.5 MCLE credits in Professional Practice.

More Information