

weighty matters - solas: what are you doing to help your customers?

Webinar

June 23, 2016
1:00 - 2:00 PM ET

Su Ross will be speaking on the NEI webinar, "Weighty Matters - SOLAS: What are You Doing to Help Your Customers?" on Thursday, June 23rd from 1:00 - 2:00 PM ET.

On July 1, 2016 the Safety of Lives At Sea regime takes effect; importers and exporters are still not sure what that means to their operations. As brokers and forwarders, are you ready to facilitate your clients' shipments so they move through the supply chain smoothly? Are the verified gross mass timely submitted? To whom and when will the VGM be submitted? Will you provide weighing services and, if so, at what cost?

Get the latest about the who, what, when, where, why and how of this latest shipping complication.
