Su Ross will be presenting, "Rules of Origin Under Different Free Trade Agreements (FTAs)," on August 9, 2016 at the Global Trade Educational Conference (G.TEC) hosted by the National Customs Brokers & Freight Forwarders Association of America.

Not all FTAs are the same and one of the principal areas of difference is the treatment of Rules of Origin to qualify the FTAs. This session will discuss some of the different manners in which Rules of Origin need to be looked at with different FTAs.

This information will help you determine if your imported products do in fact qualify for inclusion and benefits of various FTAs.
