

collective bargaining with the guilds in motion pictures and television

April 2016

On April 14th, Anthony Amendola was a featured speaker on the Collective Bargaining with the Guilds in Motion Pictures and Television panel at Southwestern Law School. The panel gave students the opportunity to discuss the various perspectives of the parties involved in the negotiation process of the Collective Bargaining Agreement and what the implementation of those terms looks like on a regular basis.

Other Panelists Included:

Duncan Crabtree-Ireland, General Counsel, SAG-AFTRA
Tony Segall, General Counsel, WGA

attorneys

Anthony J. Amendola

practice areas

employment litigation & counseling

labor & employment

labor litigation & counseling