The University of Texas at Austin

April 19, 2017

Evan Kent will be speaking on the panel, "Who Owns the Copyright in Fossils, Casts and Molds," on April 19, 2017, at The University of Texas at Austin for the Association of Materials & Methods in Paleontology.

The panel will be part of the "Ethics Symposium" portion of the annual meeting. They will address the various aspects of ethics in paleontology with targeted talks. Additionally, discussion time will allow for feedback, comments, and questions regarding each topic. The day will close with attendees participating in an audit of the AMMP Code of Ethics; a fundamental document for the Association.
