

employment and immigration issues

UCLA School of Law | 385 Charles E Young Dr E, Los Angeles, CA 90095

May 15, 2017

10:45 AM - 12:15 PM (Pacific Time)

Howard Shapiro will be moderating the panel, "Employment and Immigration Issues," on May 15, 2017 at the Video Game Bar Association Summit at the UCLA School of Law.

The VGBA Summit is the definitive conference for international practitioners of interactive entertainment law. Drawing the largest audience of in-house counsel from game publishers and developers, the annual event matches a senior audience and expert speakers for two days of dynamic discussion and socialization among peers.

The panel will discuss how the interactive entertainment industry is subject to many of the same business concerns as other industries, including employment issues. This panel will explore the impact of immigration and employment law on businesses within the industry, as well as discuss the nature of employment relationships and the resultant requirements.

Moderator: Howard Shapiro, Partner, Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP

Panelists:

- Danielle Gotcher, Global Immigration Partners
- John Rubiner, Gerald Fox Law
