conlaw 101: how lawyers can help you save america, 2017 truman national security project annual conference

Washington Marriott at Metro Center

June 25, 2017

On Sunday, June 25th, Alexandra Meise will be speaking at the the 2017 Truman Conference located at the Washington Marriott at Metro Center.

"There is no greater institution of our democracy than the Constitution, and no more important time than now to understand how it works and how to use it. Truman Partners and self-described SCOTUS geeks, Xander Meise and Barbi Appelquist, will give members a Constitutional tool-kit to help them poke through the political spin of legal issues, while using legal vocabulary to protect, advance, and advocate for basic rights and freedoms."

This panel will discuss how best to engage in the policy, politics, and protection work of the coming four years. The end result? A motivated, empowered community of leaders across the nation ready to stand together for what they believe in.
